

Volunteering with Chimo offers a unique and rewarding opportunity to support those in need and to make a positive difference in your community. Volunteering is a powerful avenue for ongoing personal growth! It is also a great way to gain valuable life skills and professional skills, such as self-awareness, active listening skills, crisis prevention and management skills.

We are proud to offer in-depth training delivered by highly-skilled Crisis Line professionals. Volunteers are the backbone of our services, and we are committed to ensure that you receive the training, support and encouragement that you deserve.

Crisis Line Program Overview

Crisis Line Volunteers provide emotional support, referral information, and crisis intervention to a diverse population of callers in distress 16 hours a day, 7 days a week. Callers seek support with a wide range of issues, including suicidal thoughts, family violence, relationship conflicts, and loneliness.

Qualifications

- 19 years of age and older
- Good command of spoken English
- Successfully complete a Vulnerable Sector Criminal Record Check

Training

Successful candidates are required to complete the Chimo Volunteer Responder Training:

- Covering topics on basic counseling skills, mental health, substance use, family violence, and crisis intervention.
- Formats include lectures, small group discussions, and role-play exercises.
 - o 4 Online Modules – 1 per week
 - o 4 Online Checkpoints on Weekends – 3 hours every Saturday for 4 weeks.
 - o 7 In-Person shifts – 1 per week

Training Fee: $50

Commitment Expectations

This is an ON-SITE volunteer opportunity; shifts are available during weekdays from 8 am to midnight and on weekends. Volunteers must commit to a minimum one 4-hour shift per week, a maximum 8 hours, for 200 hours, including one 8 pm to midnight shift each month-(training sessions not included), after completion of training. Volunteers are expected to attend a training shift 3 months after their training. Please note that applicants can only apply for one program at a time. For example, if you are accepted into the Crisis Line volunteer program, you will then be expected to fulfill the commitment requirement before applying to another program.

Volunteer Application Process

1. Upon receipt of the application form, the Manager will review your application and respond within 7 business days.
2. Qualified applicants will be invited to attend an interview.

3. Reference checks will be conducted.
4. Accepted applicants will be provided with instructions regarding the submission of the Vulnerable Sector Criminal Record Check, payment of the training fee and other pre-training requirements.
5. Successful candidates are required to attend all mandatory training sessions. Evaluation of suitability is conducted throughout the training sessions.

Please email your application to volunteer@chimoservices.com. We look forward to hearing from you soon.
